Constitution of the Council

1. Background

- 1.1 It is the duty of the Council's Monitoring Officer to review the Constitution from time to time and to propose amendments to the Council. Generally amendments are proposed at the Council's Annual Meeting to reflect any changes which are proposed to the schemes of delegation for both Members and Officers, together with any further amendments which may be considered to be necessary for the efficient and effective management of the Council and Council services.

2. Executive Scheme of Delegation

- 2.1 The Leader of the Council determines how, and by whom, executive functions are carried out. The Leader has agreed a scheme of delegation of executive functions to the individual members of the Executive. The Executive Scheme of Delegation is set out in the Responsibility for Functions document which will be placed on the Council's website for reference. This document forms part 3 of the Council's Constitution.

3. Officer Scheme of Delegation

- 3.1 Proposed changes to the Officer Scheme of Delegation are recommended to ensure that the Constitution is in line with changed statutory regulations and also current Council policy. The Officers Scheme of Delegation is also contained in the Responsibility for Functions document being placed on the Council's website.
