Background

It is the duty of the Council's Monitoring Officer to review the Constitution from time to time and to propose amendments to the Council. Generally amendments are proposed at the Council's Annual General Meeting to reflect any changes which are proposed to the schemes of delegation for both Members and Officers, together with any further amendments which may be considered to be necessary for the efficient and effective management of the Council and Council services.

Article 15 of the Constitution requires that any proposed changes to the Constitution should be referred to the Executive, Standards Committee and Standards Committee for comment prior to consideration by the Council at the Annual Meeting on 22nd May 2013.

Review of the Constitution

The current Constitution has been in place for some time and has been updated as and when new legislation and regulations have come into force.

However, it was felt necessary to carry out a full review this year to ensure that all changes have been made and to ensure that working practices are still relevant for the efficient operation of the Council.
