Re: LA0301/15 St Alphonsus Parish Centre application for late weekend licence

Dear Jan

I am writing to you regarding the above application for a late licence and wish to raise a serious objection to this application.

I have lived in Alphonsus Street for over a year now and am on occasion disturbed by the noise from late running events at the parish centre. This situation is completely manageable at present but I do fear if a late licence was granted to the premises that my mental and physical health would suffer.

I particularly chose to live on Alphonsus Street as it seemed like a peaceful street with a great mix of young families and elderly neighbours.

Since my partners death a few years ago I am working very hard to raise my young child as a single mother and I hold a demanding position which requires me to commit a great deal of my time. I therefore require childminders to be at home with my daughter from time to time, including my parents who are in their 70s. The thought of them and my child being disturbed by noise and I fear potential criminal activity from across the road is a lot for me to bear.

I have heard people on the streets late at night following events at the centre and a late licence will only make this worse. Sometimes I can hear bad language and smell marijuana from my bedroom window which directly faces the centre.

I strongly fear that the late licence will exacerbate this and attract even more unsavoury types and harder drugs. This is of great concern to a parent and I do fear for the safety of my child as the waste this kind of behaviour leaves on the street is potentially harmful should a child pick anything up.

I don't wish to feel intimidated in my own home and I imagine this feeling is even worse for my elderly neighbours.

I would ask you to take this into consideration whilst you review the licence application.

Alphonsus Street is a good place to live at present and although events at the centre are irritating when they run on late so far none of the issues presented have been unsurmountable. However if a late licence was granted, even just for two days a week I think this would make the centre into a public nuisance and I will be forced to seek legal advice in this matter.

Please could you contact me to let me know of your decision? I am very keen to understand the outcome.

Many thanks

Rufina Lawani

Dated: Wednesday, 22 July 2015
Subject: Formal Representation for an Alcohol Licence Extension.

Dear Jan,

I Mrs. Susan Land of the above aforementioned address wish to make a formal representation about the Extended Alcohol Licence application made by SDC Trading Limited on Alphonsus Street, Parish Centre, 2 Powell Street, Old Trafford, Manchester, M16 TQQ, that has been applied to the Licensing Authority of Trafford Council, dated 2nd July 2015, by John Gaunt & Partners, Solicitors.

The application indicates that SDC Trading Limited are requesting to extend their current alcohol trading licence until the terminal hour of 02:00am Friday, Saturday and Sundays on a Bank Holiday Monday weekend.

My concerns are that I have lived at the property above for 49 years; I am a Retired Disabled Pensioner and I have lived adjacent to the Alphonsus Street, Parish Centre for approximately 40 years and I worry that history will repeat itself.

There have been late night licences in place before at the Alphonsus Parish Centre and there was never any duty of care to the neighbourhood shown by the proprietors. Every other weekend there would be fighting in the streets, cars and people's property was being damaged, and their inebriated customers were caught urinating, being sick in neighbourhood gardens and at times it was very stressful.

There were also problems with noise pollution from the premises playing loud music, people shouting/screaming, taxi's doors opening/closing, taxis beeping awaiting customers and their customer's talking and laughing outside our properties into the early hours of the morning.

The reason I'm making this Formal Representation is that there is no formal control in place at present, so what will be SDC Trading Limited Duty of Care to Noise Pollution, from their activities be going forward.

I also feel that Trafford Council have a duty of care to its resident's public health and wellbeing and I would like to understand, what the Councils intentions will be to control or prevent any public nuisance, IF SDC Trading Limited cannot manage both its noise and disturbance

I hope that you do not reject my comments with regards to this letter of Formal Representation but I feel passionate about our surrounding neighbourhood and I feel that this application needs to be reviewed before being implemented.

I await your response and would gladly attend any meeting to discuss the above.

Yours Sincerely

Mrs Susan Land
