Dear sir, madam

I am writing to you re the application for a premises licence under section 17 of the Licensing act 2003 of Martin McColl Ltd 52 Coppice Avenue M33 4WB. I reside at [REDACTED] Coppice Avenue and object to this application on the grounds that within a 100 metres of this property there is the Co-op open until 10pm serving alcohol, Tesco garage open until midnight where alcohol is available and finally the manor house which is a public house again serving alcohol

Delivery's commence approx 5:30am to 6am every morning which disturbs sleep if Martins remain open until 11pm* at night this would again disturb and shorten night's sleep further as this would certainly encourage more people onto Coppice Ave to avoid queues at Tesco to purchase alcohol.

16th June 2016

I am caring for my 90 year old mother which you can appreciate is difficult as she is not in full health without any further stress from this type of application

I would also like to add I have signed a petition brought to my house by a gentleman who lives at 17 Sapling Grove, behind the library car park, where concerns have been made about the disturbance from alcohol and drug use on the library car-park have been stated by the residents. I believe this application granted could further problems

Thank-you for taking the time to read this letter and would ask for it to be private and confidential to the persons requested to assist in this matter, finally could

I request applications of this nature

LICENSING

Petition This petition is in response to the licensing/planning application made by Martins newsagents, of Coppice Avenue, Sale M33, to sell alcohol from their premises between the hours of 6am - 11pm.

Objection We, the undersigned, are concerned local residents who oppose the granting of an alcohol license to the above named business on the grounds that there is already 3 other alcohol outlets within approx 100 metres of Martins, and this license would potentially increase local anti social behaviour.

Petition to Trafford Council Planning & Licensing Dept

Petition This petition is in response to the licensing/planning application made by Martins newsagents, of Coppice Avenue, Sale M33, to sell alcohol from their premises between the hours of 6am - 11pm.

Objection We, the undersigned, are concerned local residents who oppose the granting of an alcohol license to the above named business on the grounds that there is already 3 other alcohol outlets within approx 100 metres of Martins, and this license would potentially increase local anti social behaviour.
