Champions

1. Good news from Q3

- Liam Gilmore received two 'Apprentice of the Year' awards, one from the Altrincham and Sale Chamber of Commerce and another in Trafford Council's Employee Recognition Awards. He also had some good feedback for assisting at the Trafford Apprenticeship fair and from the NVQ assessor on completing his qualification.
- Mark Pearson volunteered at the 'Rochdale Literature & Ideas Festival 'Duties included meet and greet audiences and speakers, book selling and tweeting / publicising events. Feedback is in this tweet chain:

1. Good news from Q3

- Mark Pearson from the Business Improvement team attended a business forum in Oldham and was able to network with local businesses sharing details of our website resources, The Chest and our Twitter account and spread the word about tendering techniques
- STAR became CIPS corporate ethics certified this quarter due to training the team successfully completed
