NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

THE HIVE STRETFORD DISPERSAL POLICY

This document lays out the minimum agreed actions to be carried out by the door supervision team when dispersing patrons upon closure of the bar (the point where alcohol stops being served). This is not designed to be an exhaustive document and other actions may become necessary as the circumstances require it.

- 1 Hour drinking up time to be observed at all times from the point that alcohol stops being served over the bar. Patrons should not be rushed and allowed to finish their drinks in their own time within the hour period. The object being to ensure there is no sudden build-up of people outside the venue.
- During the last hour of business there are to be no admissions into the venue.
- During the last hour of business there are to be no readmissions into the venue. If somebody leaves the premises, they should not be permitted re-entry.
- No drinks are to be taken beyond the boundary of The Hive's premises; this includes in plastic glasses/containers.
- During the last hour of business door supervisors are to maintain a constant presence at the boundary of The Hive property (Outside the main doors). This is to ensure all policies are enforced, to act as a deterrent to disorder upon leaving and to provide de-escalation outside of the venue in the event of disorder. This policy is designed to cover the area directly outside The Hive venue (pavement and road)

THE HIVE EJECTION & DRUG POLICY

This document is designed to outline the minimum expected actions of the door team in the event that persons need to be ejected from the premises. It is not designed to cover all eventualities and other actions may become necessary as required in order to protect the safety of the customers staff and property of the venue. It is also designed to stipulate our policy regarding persons found to be using or dealing drugs on the premises.

- All persons being asked to leave the venue should in the first instance be given the opportunity to leave of their own accord. If removal is required, then minimum reasonable force necessary is to be used.
- In the event of violence within the venue, the opposing parties are to be separated. The victim, if they can be identified should be detained within the venue allowing the other party to leave. The victim should only be allowed out of the venue once the other party has left, if the aggressor refuses to leave the area then a Police presence should be considered. This is necessary to ensure that we take all possible precautions to avoid further incidents of violence either within the venue or outside. Door staff should consider in the event of violence if a Police presence is required, this decision should be based on the views of the parties involved, CCTV and the severity of the incident. At all times the venues duty of care to customers should be paramount.
- Persons entering the venue should be routinely searched using both a wand and manual procedures for the purpose of preventing drugs and weapons entering the venue.
- The venue operates a zero-tolerance policy on drugs, any person found to be taking or distributing drugs should be searched and drugs confiscated and handed to the duty manager or deposited into a locked drop box (to be provided by the venue). These will then be handed to the Police. Any confiscated drugs should remain in view of CCTV at all times prior to handing to the duty manager or depositing into the drop box. The person found to have possession of drugs should be asked to leave or removed as appropriate. In the event that someone is suspected of dealing that person should be detained and the police
